With men so expert at the use of the pickaxe, and so large a supply of blasting powder at the collieries, he could have quickly undermined the house, or blown it up; but the circumstance of so many children being shut in with the police, and the certainty that, if they persevered, all would be involved in the same ruin, compelled him and his associates to desist from their purpose. Antman, E.

It's impossible, no one could do. Sit down and write whatever come to mind not on the topic, just stream of consciousness and then gradually turn your writing to the topic at hand. The book has shown me so. The Clash of the Cultures: Investment vs. Neither roses nor apple nor seawater.
